

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Ribbons to 5th place will be awarded in each class. Rosettes will be awarded to Grand and Reserve Champions in halter classes. Grand and Reserve Rosettes will be awarded in Youth Performance.
- A llama can show in only one class for each performance course!
- Stall fees are $25 each. There should be no more than (2) adult llamas or (3) juvenile llamas per stall. Floors in Barn are dirt. Stalls will be clean upon arrival and MUST be cleaned before leaving.
- It will be the exhibitor's responsibility to provide bedding materials. Carpeting, straw, or sod is acceptable, but not available at the show site. You must provide your own hay and feed.
- Show Management will pre-assign stalls on a first-come, first-served basis and will try to accommodate all special requests. Please check in at the registration desk BEFORE unloading in order to receive your show packet with stalling assignments. Health papers will be checked at this time by the Registration Clerk.
- Electricity is provided for each stall and water is available at strategic areas throughout the barn area. You may need extension cords to run fans.
- Grooming area and cold water racks are available.
- There will be an exhibitors' meeting at 8:00 a.m. Saturday morning at which time you will meet the judge who will give you the instructions and guidelines of what to expect and what is expected of you for the show day.
- Although not obligatory, it is ALSA recommended that show attire, which consists of white tops and dark (preferably black) pants/skirts be worn for halter classes. This is mandatory for Showmanship classes. NO OPEN-TOED FOOTWEAR.
- There will be no class changes allowed at the show except those made by the judge, so be sure to know what class you want your llama to be in. Classes may be combined if there are fewer than three entries per class.
- Security will be provided by the Mountaineer Llama Show Committee
- A Veterinarian will be on call
- Deadline for entries: MUST BE POSTMARKED no later than May 17, 2010.
Late entries taken after that date must include a late fee of $25 LATE entries postmarked by May 24, 2010
Make a copy of entries for your records.
- Make checks payable to: Mountaineer Llama Show or MLS
- Mail to: MaryAnn Herd – MLS;
724 Bovard Luxor Road
Greensburg, PA 15601

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

All llamas must have a health certificate dated no further out than 30 days prior to show day. ALL animals must be free of infectious diseases and its signs. Show management has the right to ask any animal showing signs of ill health or behavioral problems, to leave the premises.

LLAMA RULES

- This llama show is sanctioned by ALSA and all rules and guidelines for this show will be in accordance with the 15th Edition ALSA handbook.
- All exhibitors must be a member of ALSA unless a $30 non-member farm fee is paid. Non-member Youth showing in Youth Division must pay a fee of $15 for the show. A photocopy of your membership card MUST be included with your entry.
- Entries must be in the name of the registered owner and made in the exact name (owner and llama) as shown on the registration certificate or with a "permission to show" form. Failure to do so will prohibit entry into the show. Owners may or may not be the handler.
- All llamas entered in approved classes, with the exception of Youth Classes, Performance Classes, and Non-breeder Classes MUST be registered or have passed screening with the International Llama Registry (ILR), or the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation (CLRC). Copies of registration papers MUST be mailed with the entry form.
- Non-Breeder llamas do not have to be registered or have passed screening with the ILR or the CLRC except those recorded with ALSA and participating in the Award System. If Non-breeders are not registered and wish to be in the ALSA Award System, they must show in the Adult Non-Breeder Halter Class.
- Non-breeder llamas must be accompanied by a Registration or Veterinarian Certificate verifying the animal is a gelding, or a spayed or non-productive female.
- Nursing llama mothers may not be accompanied in the ring by their crias. ALSA recommends not showing nursing mothers.
- Llamas may not be moved from one class to another after halter judging has begun except at the judge's decision.

ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES

ARRIVAL and DEPARTURE: Arrival is open on Friday, June 4th after 3 p.m. If arriving Saturday, llamas must be in place at least ½ hour prior to show. Llamas are allowed to depart at any time, however all animals must be removed on Sunday after the completion of the show. All stalls Must be cleaned prior to exhibitor departure.
